

WISDOM 11.11.11

We are all innately wise and loving.

Wisdom day is a day to consciously reconnect with who we truly are. To let go of the past to let go of blame to let go of attachment to future plans and hopes and dreams.

Let's stop fighting and being greedy thinking and saying I'm right and your wrong

Instead... lets DEVELOP OUR WISDOM

Touch base with who we are as equal beings, in this day, in this moment, on this planet, all wanting to be happy and free what ever our size creed, color; To connect with what is truly valuable, to create perspective, open minds and open hearts.

Children are the holders of the next generation of wisdom

Our Wisdom Warriors

We would like to ask them what they believe Wisdom to be... how we can access it, how we can use it to make our lives happy, fulfilling and abundant.

Wisdom 11.11.11 is a day created to celebrate and re-ignite the infinite Sauce of love and wisdom that lies at the heart of every being!

Let Wisdom Speak
